1999-2002 Senior Art Director/Information Architect
Fusive.com | Deerfield Beach, FL

- Managed all levels of designers in the Creative Department to produce successful visual, strategic and functional design solutions to meet project's objectives on time and within budget.
- Created site maps and wire frames in order to effectively organize, structure, and design the user-oriented task of browsing and searching systems to find, manage information and improve usability.
- Worked in a team environment with business analysts, information architects, interactive media developers, and programmers on all stages of project to define and ensure implementation of creative and user interface approach.
- Provided estimates, deliverables and dependencies for project proposals.
- Helped define and document processes for the department. Some of the processes included the creation and maintenance of an estimating sheet that became the standard estimation process for the department and later for the company. Another was the creation of the department's methodology document, which is now used as a sales and training tool.

Clients: AutoNation, Discovery Channel, Giantbank, Rheem, Pepsi, Microsoft, Sony, American Modern Insurance Group (AMIG), Weston Presidio Capital, Colonial Penn, Baptist Hospital, GiantBank, LensExpress, CSFB, etc.

1995-1999 Creative Director
Netrox LC. | Miami, FL

- Established the company's web development department.
- Responsible for the planning, strategy, creation, direction, design, and production of client's web sites. Projects required the ability to coordinate a team of designers and programmers to work together and develop intricate web sites with a clear focus on design, function and interactivity. Accountable for communicating with clients, getting feedback, updating, and making changes to customer projects.
- Created and developed Netrox's corporate identity, which included all marketing materials for both the parent company (Netrox) and for its services: Cyberchefs, House It, and new Media Studio. The identity was implemented throughout logos, product packaging, brochures, posters, tradeshow graphics, and other collateral materials.

Clients: Baymont Inns, Steak Out, Ready to Wear, Cyberchefs, etc.

1998 Consultant
New World School of the Arts | Miami, FL

- Taught Computer Art 1 as a consultant
- Responsible for planning the syllabus and grading students based on performance, attendance and participation.
- The class involved the planning of exercises, which would allow students to explore their creativity while learning the basics of Photoshop, Illustrator, and Quark Xpress.

1992-1995 Artist Assistant
Byzantium Mosaic Workshop - Miami, FL.

- Responsible for the planning, elaboration, and installation of mosaics designed by well known artist Luciano Franchi.
- Implementation of his designs ranged from architectural structures like floors, columns, and walls to furniture pieces like planters, tables, and plates. Projects required working with architectural plans to develop a life-size template where small pieces of glass were arranged to create visual patterns using the reverse method in most cases.
